Adults: 17 (2 disguised as adults)

Teenagers: 4

Children: 3

For Observe: 3 Children and 4 teenagers. Which is pretty good for the Observers to find one child, who they can trust almost completely then, and 4 teenagers, who they could try to get to trust/making an alliance with.

All BOs are Adults, besides Vermouth/Irish that could be disguised as an teenager. Still, if they randomly lynch an adult, they have a high chance to lynch a BO. Better than with no info at all.

1 Lover pair: Akemi x Eisuke

2 police, one with House arrest.

2 protector/healer types: Makoto and Kobayashi. Both can even prevent the day lynching with protecting everyone or with Voice of reason.

2 trickser on town side

3 interrogators, 1 sober from the start

2 observers

2 thieves

2 disguised players

2 DBs

Haibara

Yusaku with his deduction etc.

Kir, who also got the info about how many FBI's (James, Akai, Camel, Jodie) are in the game as compensation after Dus was added into the game which made her lose her "NOC ability". Didn't get to know if someone is disguised or not.

BO: no trickser, but Tequila. Got Gin. Vermouth(James) Anokata, Picso, Korn, Akemi(traitor) and Calvados.

Not in game: Vodka, Bourbon, Irish, Chianti
