Comment:

Note: I was in the PM list with the BO. So I knew what they planed etc.

Decided to put in Dus as a BO. Random voted for him being Gin (I didn't decide that!)
Reasons for him being BO: Town/BO lover, a strong Eisuke/Akemi combo that can manipulate the BO a lot + lovey-dovey in the game. Also, Kogoro was sober from the start. They also had a house search police officer + DBs + Haibara + 2 other interrogators + Yusakus Deduction etc. So, a lot spoke for Dus becoming a BO. Thing that spoke against it was Tequila. But I thought that the lovers are more dangerous and a bigger influence than Tequila.

Two interrogations were done on Pofa. First, she wasn't slandered. And wasn't planed to be slandered (I think they wanted to slander PhoenixTears).
But breva told Dus that she'll interrogate Pofa, which isn't a bad plan at all, since she was Kogoro and sober. So she could and did analyze her interrogation.
But bad luck, that Paix also interrogated Pofa at that time. Probably a problem why breva wasn't believed so much later on.

Holmes was blamed for slandering himself. Detective Tommy did random investigations on player slanders himself. With bad luck, Detective Tommy would have thought Holmes is a BO D:

CTU observed Tommy. Meaning, he could just be disguised. So, he was on a good lead to find an ally. He also stole from xpon and got a Gun. But he thought he's a BO because of that, which lead him to vote for xpon too.

Commi discombobulated PhoenixTears. Could have hindered a BO killing in case PT would have killed that time! PT wouldn't have known that. But Pofa used stake-out and knew that. Was lucky.
Especially since PT said to Commi that commi could have discombobulated her, in which commi seemed to have panicked, which made PT think Commi actually tricked her (which later lead to the special investigate, that Commi tricked PT). A combination of luck and strategy (talkign to Commi)
The fact that PT could say that her night action was tricked (tho she was Pisco and didn't do anything), made her less suspicious of being Pisco.

Xpon investigated "brevia investigates xpon". Not sure if there was a miscommunication? But xpon was suspicious of breva afterward. Maybe because of that?

Holmes did some random investigations. Better than nothing when you don't have time. But wasn't lucky with any of that :/

Edogawa(Akemi) killed xcommand(Haibara)... I totally had to laugh! Because that happened before! And Akonyl was all like: "I don't believe in coincidence!" because he was Calvados again and before he was all DBs in a row etc. Just great XD

Pofa used stake-out and was lucky :)

Dus investigated if someone was disguised as Akai/Jodie/Camel. Since they knew from Vermouth/James that there is someone strange.

He also investigated breva, since she said she'll interrogate. Which revealed to the BO that she can't be Hakuba and that she doesn't have a partner and probably didn't switch roles/information.

Sherlock used BS to interrogate Conia (that's why the failed is behind that, but you don't get BS results). If she would have said to someone that she interrogated Conia and got a result, it would look bad for her. Since Conai was Makoto and not on board yet! So she could have been find out as Anokata because of that. She didn't seem to have told that to anyone, so, had luck there.

Shin_ichi01 didn't use First Aid D:

Lynch: Xpon

Night 2:

Steal Commi-Ninja

observe: PT

Will

Schillok:

If anyone is reading these lines it means that they found and killed me. Since I can't be sure who will find this letter I have to be careful not to endanger anyone else.

Yes, it was me who persuaded the organisation members to get on the ship. This is our best chance to get them all once and for all, since they have no chance of escape now. There are at least 7 of them here. The person called "Dus" arrived too late, so I can not be sure if he is the 8th member of the organisation or on my side.

They should not know that I am on the ship myself - they think I stayed at the harbor, but I guess my death proved that I was wrong with that assumption.

Please be careful everyone: They have 3 capsules of a deadly experimental poison with them and they can make more of it when they confirm that it is working like they hope. So be careful with what you eat and drink... (it is only lethal when indigested).

They will probably give up using it when they failed to kill with it a few times. So be aware!

As expected, Gin is on board. I just saw him, investigating. What and whom, I have no idea, I couldn't risk to get too close.

But at least I am sure now that he is here. And I also know now that no one stopped him from doing his evil deeds (whatever they might be).

Finally... I want to be buried on solid ground. To my beloved brother: You have to live through all of this! Stay alive and visit my grave once in a while! I am sure my death will not have been for nothing in the end.

Hondo Hidemi

bloodie pirates! cant you feel symphatize to a broken hearted cupid. damn you! dont kill me on the first night / first day. let me enjoy the wind for a while.

Phase Change

Night 1 started

The people were excited on the ship. Most were awake almost the whole night. Finally, everyone returned into their cabin and were sleeping (alone or not <3).

Kleene: "Time to go to sleep too, Jack"

Jack: "Yes sir! Good night!"

The morning sun was rising. Captain Kleene Onigiri was already awake and watching the rising sun reflecting in the sea. The sky had a great, blood like color.

Kleene: "Ahh.. what a nice morni--" D:

"KYAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!"

Kleene: "or not... Jack?! What happened?!"

Jack came rushing to Captain Kleene Onigiri: "I don't know captain! I just took my patrol around the ship and heard the scream!"

Kleene: "Oh jeez. I bet someone has just a headache from all that drinking last night... they tried to beat me, tz. Amateurs."

Jack: "Uhm... Captain... I think it's serious. That scream was horrifying."

Kleene: "You think so? Fine, let's check it out then... what a bother."

Kleene and Jack checked out the rooms and found a lot of people assembling in front of one of the rooms.

Jack: "Out of the way! Out of the way! Let us through!"

Kleene: "Geez. Why are you guys screaming around... what happen-- WHOA!"

Entering the room, Kleene and Jack could see a small body lying on the bed. It wasn't a pleasant sight. The small fragile body was pierced by a big sword through her chest and pinned to the bed. The blanked was covered in a darkish red color, dried blood.

Looks like the victim was taken by surprise, since there were no indicators of a fight. The small person was already sleeping it seems, since she was already dressed for bed. But she also has her eyes wide open, tear flowing down her cheek. Which means she saw her murderer.

People outside: "Who is it? Who did such a horrible thing?"

Some of them are crying. Others are pale and shacking. And some people seem to want to get a glimpse on the corpse, without showing much emotion.

Kleene: "Let me check who that is..." Kleene goes nearer to the victim taking a closer look to identify the body.

Kleene: "I see... poor girl... it's Haibara(xcommando)... now... who did this horrible thing on my ship?! Did you guys drink too much? Jack!"

Jack: "Yes?"

Kleene: "Bring me a drink! I need one, now!"

Jack: "Uh... yes sir!"

Kleene: "Everyone else, meet me on the deck! Someone will pay for this! And for the ruined bed too!"

Hint:

Haibara was killed by her sister Akemi. The sword was suggested by the BO, so not a hint. Haibara was surprised but saw her killer, that's why she was crying. Tho, crying can also just be because you died. But was a true hint on Akemi being the killer.
